CASE NO. C20-0733-JCC

MINUTE ORDER

17 The following Minute Order is made by direction of the Court, the Honorable John C.
18 Coughenour, United States District Judge:

19 This matter comes before the Court sua sponte. On July 9, 2020, the Court denied
20 Plaintiff's motion to seal because the parties had failed to meet and confer in accordance with 21 Western District of Washington Local Civil Rule 5(g). (See generally Dkt. No. 23.) The Court
22 nonetheless directed the Clerk to maintain the docket entries at issue under seal "pending the 23 filing of a renewed motion to seal and the Court's ruling on such a motion." (Id. at 2.)

24 Plaintiff subsequently notified the Court of its intent to not refile its motion to seal. (See 25 Dkt. No. 25 at 1.) In its order granting Plaintiff's motion to enforce settlement agreement, the 26 Court gave Defendants 14 days to file a motion to seal and warned Defendants that failure to do

1 so would “result in the unsealing of the relevant docket entries in accordance with the strong
2 presumption of access to the Court’s files.” (Dkt. No. 27 at 7–8) (citing W.D. Wash. Local Civ.
3 R. 5(g)). That time has elapsed, and Defendants have not filed the required motion to seal or
4 otherwise responded to the Court’s order. Therefore, the Clerk is DIRECTED to unseal Docket
5 Numbers 11, 15, 16, 17, 18, and 21.

6 DATED this 19th day of August 2020.
